

Bushfire Safety

Australasian Fire and Emergency
Service Authorities Council

What's the Rating?

Name: _____

Read the scenarios in each box, then decide what the Fire Danger Rating might be for that day.

It is a sunny 25°C. There is no wind and it has rained several times in the last week.

Fire Danger Rating:

_____

Today will be 42°C and there is a warning for severe thunderstorms.

Fire Danger Rating:

_____

It hasn't rained for about two weeks and is a chilly 10°.

Fire Danger Rating:

_____

It is a balmy 32°C. The humidity is 82% and it is pretty windy. The weather presenter said it is likely to rain later today.

Fire Danger Rating:

_____

It is Christmas Day. The temperature will be 27°C, with no wind and beautiful blue skies.

Fire Danger Rating:

_____

A severe storm is underway. There is a lot of lightning, it is windy and it hasn't rained for about a month. It is 23°C.

Fire Danger Rating:

_____